Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus' message today is one of radical generosity and abundant mercy, and it scandalized the people of his time. It shook them to their core. It should do the same for us. Are we ready to live as Jesus lived? Are we ready to offer love in the face of hate?

Observances for the week of February 23, 2025

Sunday: 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thursday: St. Gregory of Narek, Abbot and Doctor of the Church

Next Sunday: 8th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Devotions, Explained!

Fasting was practiced by righteous men and women of the Old Testament and later by Christ himself. It remains an important part of the Christian devotional life today, being most strongly associated with the penitential season of Lent.

Prayer of Christian Life

Dear Jesus,
Help me to pray for and bless everyone I encounter, whether that be easy or hard. Help me to act in the mercy I have known through you. Help me to demonstrate generosity, as you have given so much to me. Amen.

QUESTIONS from the PEWS...

Q. Does God always hear our prayers?

A. We can have the same confidence Jesus had when he prayed: "Father ... I (know) that you always hear me" (Jn 11:42). And God not only hears our prayers; he answers them as well, but his answer isn't always the one we're hoping to hear. Sometimes we ask for the wrong things — things we would regret having if he gave them to us. Sometimes what we want doesn't fit into the bigger, wiser plan he has for us and for those around us. Sometimes, by withholding what we ask for, he's allowing us to develop patience or to grow in some other way.

In any case, we can always pray to God in faith. That doesn't mean we try to convince ourselves that everything we ever ask for, we'll receive. It means that we pray with trust in the Father who listens to our prayers, confident that he wants what's best for us; he knows what's best for us; and he's able to give us what's best for us. Our prayers should always ask for God's will.

PREGUNTAS de las BANCAS de la Iglesia...

P: ¿Dios siempre escucha nuestras oraciones?

R: Podemos tener la misma confianza que tenía Jesús cuando oró: "Padre... sé que siempre me escuchas" (Jn 11:42). Y Dios no solo escucha nuestras oraciones, sino que también las responde, pero su respuesta no siempre es la que esperamos escuchar. A veces pedimos las cosas equivocadas, cosas que lamentaríamos tener si nos las diera. A veces lo que queremos no encaja en el plan más grande y sabio que tiene para nosotros y para quienes nos rodean. A veces, al retener lo que pedimos, nos está permitiendo desarrollar la paciencia o crecer de alguna otra manera.

En cualquier caso, siempre podemos orar a Dios con fe. Eso no significa que tratemos de convencernos de que todo lo que pidamos lo recibiremos. Significa que oramos con confianza en el Padre que escucha nuestras oraciones, confiados en que Él quiere lo mejor para nosotros, Él sabe lo que es mejor para nosotros y Él es capaz de darnos lo que es mejor para nosotros. Nuestras oraciones siempre deben pedir la voluntad de Dios.

Lent is Around the Corner

We would like to ENCOURAGE thought begiven by FAMILIES to SERVE at the table of Our Lord as a family. We welcome your family to serve TOGETHER at Mass in the roles of server, readers, ushers and greeters, etc. What a great way to encourage Catholic family values. What a great example YOU would be setting for your children and for other Catholic families at St. Peter's. ## Sts. Louis and Zélie – Models of Loving Marriage

Sts. Louis and Zélie Martin offer a model of the vocation to love and holiness that is at the heart of marriage. By showing how God worked through both their successes and occasional failures as spouses and parents (they are the parents of St. Thérèse of Lisieux), the Martins can offer inspiration and hope for Catholic couples seeking to live out their faith in the details of everyday married life.

The depth of the love between Louis and Zélie, and the faith upon which it rested, was put to its greatest trial by the cancer from which she would die in 1877. Beginning with a tumor in her breast, always reluctant to complain, she ignored her condition and continued her work and parental duties while the tumor spread throughout her body.

Confronted with her terminal diagnosis on the eve of her 45th birthday, with five children and a husband in need of her care, Louis and Zélie fell back upon the same faith that brought them together and sustained them in their marriage.

After her death, Louis was not to be spared his own Calvary, albeit of a very different sort. He gradually retreated from the world, retiring from business to care for his family. In 1886, Louis had his first episode of dementia, wandering alone for four days before being found, no longer delirious but fundamentally changed in personality. His condition worsened until he was placed in an institution, where he would die in 1894.

As the first married couple to be made saints simultaneously, Louis and Zélie Martin can serve as a model for couples seeking to live out the Catholic faith fully amid the pressures of work, children, illness and loss. It was therefore especially fitting that, at the opening of the 2014 extraordinary Synod of Bishops on the Family, their relics were brought to Rome and venerated as part of the opening Mass.

Now a decade past their canonization in 2015, Catholic couples should continue to get to know these models for their lives and advocates in heaven, especially during this month dedicated to marriage. Sts. Louis and Zélie Martin, pray for us!
